EVENT HIGHLIGHTS

Structure & Proceedings of the Forum

The Parliamentary Forum is organized to replicate the authentic processes of a legislative assembly while ensuring an engaging and educational experience for all participants.

1. Composition of the House

The Forum comprises youth representatives assigned to various political roles, including:

- ❶ Speaker of the House – Presides over the proceedings, maintains order and ensures adherence to parliamentary decorum.
- ❷ Prime Minister and Council of Ministers – Present government policies, address questions and respond to debates.
- ❸ Leader of the Opposition – Offers counter-arguments, critiques policy decisions and upholds accountability.
- ❹ Opposition and Ruling Party Members – Participate in debates, raise questions and present motions or amendments.
- ❺ Independent Members and Observers – Contribute impartial perspectives and policy insights.

2. Session Format

The Forum is divided into multiple sessions, including:

- ❻ Inaugural Session – Opening remarks, oath of members and address by the Speaker.
- ❼ Government Motion/Private Member's Bill Session – Presentation of key resolutions and legislative proposals.
- ❽ Debate and Deliberation Session – Structured discussion on selected national and international topics.
- ❾ Question Hour – Members pose queries to the government, encouraging transparency and accountability.
- ❿ Open Forum – A dynamic space for free expression and youth-led interventions.
- ❾ Valedictory Session – Adoption of resolutions, reflections and closing remarks.

3. Conduct & Methodology

All proceedings follow parliamentary protocols and time-bound interventions, encouraging discipline, courtesy and evidence-based debate. Participants are evaluated on clarity of thought, relevance of argument, and adherence to democratic ethics.
